Who would have thought that this mean-spiritedness would carry over to support of our troops, which has ALWAYS been what YOU are about. It is sick and it is sad. And, it is such a slap in the face to the men and women who fight and sacrifice. Hopefully the Lt General will convey that...

Governor:

Have had lengthy discussions with our Army National Guard leadership. This matter is going to be looked into to a much greater degree. I am concerned. In the meantime, our lead chaplain, Chaplain Koch, has written you a formal apology on behalf of his chaplain's actions. It will be hand delivered to your Anchorage office this afternoon. Please accept it as part of the penance for this incident.

We will also drop by the presentation you received in Kosovo.

Thank you for going on this trip. I have read most of the blogs and am so disappointed at the shortsightedness and mean-spirited attitudes some people seem to have. You did the right thing to visit those soldiers and the wounded warriors. They appreciated your visit.

I am so proud to be part of your team. Thank you for your leadership.

Craig

Craig, fyi, I ran it by someone (the odd incident w the chaplain choosing the negative internet stories to use as the day's curriculum) and this former military person assured me the guy knew exactly what he was doing. Fyi
